Congratulations to 6A Dong Mei Feng, the Winner of "Best Improvement Award"

South China Morning Post Student of the Year Awards

The Student of the Year Awards is Hong Kong's most prestigious secondary school event of the year. Organised by Young Post South China Morning Post and sponsored by the Hong Kong Club, the awards are now entering their 37th year. With the support of the Education Bureau of the Hong Kong Government, Student of the Year and its satellite awards are a way for schools to acknowledge the achievements of outstanding senior-level students.

The essential aim of the awards is to spotlight the talents and accomplishments of the younger generation and rewarding their outstanding achievements in nine distinct categories, including "Best Contribution to School" and "Best Improvement". These Awards acknowledge students who not only excel on a personal level, but whose involvement in and contribution to school and the better of society helped others reach new heights.

Dong Mei-feng 董美鳳
Buddhist Fat Ho Memorial College / Form 6

Dong Mei-feng came to Hong Kong with her mother three years ago. At first, a limited knowledge of Cantonese and English meant it was difficult to do well at school, but Mei-feng made an enormous effort to change that. She also has a kind heart and is always willing to help others in need, including taking care of blind people in Hainan Island and participating in a sign language musical for charity. To show her resolve, she also took part in the Oxfam Trailwalker in 2017, completing the full 100 km course within 43 hours.

South China Morning Post

Congratulations to 6B Josh Valerio for becoming the finalist of "Best Improvement Award".
